HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1952

Sixteen happy, yet frightened pupils entered the doors of Montgomery Twp. School in September, 1940.

During our adventures in the elementary grades, we were led by our many able leaders—Miss Flory, Miss Jacobs, and Mrs. Garner. These teachers helped us to prepare for our years ahead in the junior and senior high school.

As we advanced to the seventh grade, we moved up to the third floor. We were a nervous, but curious little group of eleven. Under Mrs. Ingall's guidance, we undertook many strange, but interesting subjects.

As we started out in the eighth grade, we increased our number of students to fourteen. We started practicing our good manners so we could qualify to enter high school.

Our enrollment was decreased to thirteen. Lois Wollam, our capable leader, did a fine job of conducting our business. Mrs. Johnson helped us with our many problems and difficulties. We were called "The Green Freshmen," so the Sophomores had the pleasure of initiating us. Then we had a chance to get even when we became Sophomores, so we initiated the Freshmen.

We chose Dick Williamson as our President, who did a wonderful job. Mrs. Johnson again, helped us to solve our problems.

As we advanced to our Junior year we began looking forward to the coming events with an enrollment of ten.

We engaged in many activities which were carried out to the best of our abilities, such as the class play, and the Junior Senior Banquet. Mr. Rogers, our Class sponsor, helped us with the many trying situations which we were faced with. Soon our final turn of our educational tour was here.

In 1940 a group of timid youngsters started to Bradner elementary school. Our first grade teacher was Mrs. At-waters.

Continuing through our elementary grades we had the following teachers: Miss Blessing and Miss Canaberry for the second and third grades, Mrs. Huston, fifth and sixth grade.

After six long years, we finally reached the seventh grade and were mighty proud of our success. We had made one of our goals at last.

A year later, we entered the eighth grade and were quite anxious for the year to end because we longed to be in high school.

In September 1949, a group of seventeen fair, fearful, and frisky, freshmen climbed into the old Model-T Ford which was to chug along on a four year educational journey. In our first year we selected Carol Sue Norvell as our driver and leader, with the help of Mr. Stevens. To our surprise, our old Ford chugged us thru a successful year. But at the end of this year Bob Plouck, Violet Hostottle, Molly St. Clair, Carol Norvell, and Doris Gaskalla left us.

After filling our Ford with gas and checking its tires, we drove in the fall of '50. Cleo Ostrander was our driver this year and with the help of Mr. Sproul, we finished the year with a bang.

In September 1951 we again dusted off our Ford to continue our journey, with Marilyn Molnar as our driver and leader and Mr. Rice as our advisor. Immediately we started thinking of ways to earn money to entertain the Seniors. We also received our class rings which was indeed a great thrill. To complete our junior year, we gave our class play. We ended our junior year with great anticipation for our Senior year.

Happy, but a little regretful we came to the last curve of our journey. We began our Senior year by entering the halls of Montgomery School.

Due to the consolidation of Bradner and Wayne High Schools, we Seniors became an ambitious group of twenty-one. After making new acquaintances and friends, we began to look forward and prepare for our graduation. By doing so, we selected the following members to represent us for our Senior year: Dick Williamson, Pres.; Dan Schmeltz, V. Pres.; Betty Tyson, Sec.; Wilma Sidle, Treas.; and Evelyn White, Rep. Mr. Rogers guided us through our final year at Montgomery Local.

A project carried throughout the year was selling refreshments at the games. Other projects consisted of selling magazines, Christmas cards, and collecting scrap paper.

We worked very hard for a trip with these various sales campaigns, the senior play, and our annual.

Some of us will choose to go further on the road which leads to fame, while others will be content to follow the pathway.

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of 52, being of sound mind (?) and able body do hereby constitute this to be our last will and testament and subject to change by course of law.

We, the Senior Class, will to the Junior Class all of our money making projects.

Regina Baker—wills her ability to wear her diamond to Letitia Dean and Joyce Rubel.

Richard Coppler—wills his ability to talk his way out of things, to Irene Vosburg and Marvin Sams.

Barbara Burns—wills her music ability to Garland Smith and Betty Swin.

Della Florea—wills her dark blue eyes to all Junior girls to catch their men.

Willy Gaskella—wills his "butch" hair cut to Ray Reynolds and Charles Tyson.

Carol Gries—wills her ability to attract males with her Pontiac to any Junior girl.

Sally Foster—wills her ability to get long distant telephone calls to Janet Swayer and Patty Williamson.

Don Lemmon—wills his ability to "raise the dough" at Tony's to Ann Whitman and Dick Noble.

Ivan McCoy—wills his quiet disposition to Kenny Tyson and Jim Johnson.

Marilyn Molnar—wills her name "Cookie" to Lowell Buckingham and Glenn White.

Noel Nonnemaker—wills his physique to Von Bloom and Charles Morgart.

Cleo Ostrander—wills her worldly knowledge to Grace Smith and Fred Ault.

Rex Parsons—wills his salesmanship ability to Ruth Mahaffey and Blake Tyson.

Bob Sabo—wills old lizzy (car) to Gineth Farabee and Jeanne Trudel.

Tom Sage—wills his ability to be heard through the hall to Mamie Gibson, and Jane Graber.

Dan Schmeltz—wills his lunch hour taxi service to any lucky Junior boy.

Wilma Sidle—wills her "Hope Chest" to Bob Hartenfeld and Paul Allen.

Betty Tyson—wills her ability to flirt to Joyce Geren and Joyce Burton.

Evelyn White—wills her ability to be a reporter to Tom Long and Bonnie Rentz.

Dick Williamson—wills his athletic ability to Don Ickes Jr. and David Beiar.

We, the Seniors, will to our alma mater all the humble memories of the past.

We, the Seniors, leave to our teachers, _____ well, we'll just leave.

Lastly, we appoint the president of the succeeding class as sole executor and administrator of our last will and testament.

We, therefore, sign our signatures upon this, our last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1952 of Montgomery Local School the twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

PROPHECY

Listen my friends
And you shall hear,
The prophecy of
The Seniors this year.

Flash! ! 1962 Annual Wood County Fair! Renew old acquaintances!

"Hurry, here comes the bus now." Scr-e-e-e-e-e-ch.

"Watch your step! Ladies first."

"My that's a familiar voice. Why Tom Sage! You certainly look "snazzy" in that uniform. Any seats in the rear?"

"Sure. Oh, by the way, our old classmates, Dan and Wilma, are renewing their experiences together. Why don't you join them."

"Hi, Dan and Wilma! Gee, you sure look cheerful! What's new!"

"Remember Regina Baker and Dick Williamson? They are the proud parents of twins; just this morning. We just talked to Marilyn Molnar who is head nurse at Mercy Hospital. She is really devoted to her work. By the way, where are you headed for?"

"We just decided to spend a day at the fair."

"What a coincidence! That's my destination also—my, at the fair already? Let's visit the needlework displays first. Um! What a pretty doily!"

"Glad you like it."

"Evelyn White! Is that your little boy? He sure is a husky little fellow. How is Bob? Did he ever achieve his goal as a wrestler?"

"Oh yes, he is wrestling this afternoon. Remember Ivan McCoy? He is Bob's manager now."

"Well, we must be getting on. There's a lot to see yet. Oh, here comes the American Legion Band. Doesn't the leader look familiar? Why, I believe that is Betty Tyson. It is! ! Let's wave to her. Maybe she'll see us and come around to talk to us later. Listen to those drums. Do you suppose that is someone we know? Here he comes, get a good look! Sure enough, our old pal, Noel Nonnemaker."

"What's that aroma? Smells mighty pleasing to an empty stomach. What do you say we venture over that way?"

"May I help you?"

"Do my eyes deceive me! Isn't that Sally Foster and Rex Parsons preparing hamburgs and french fries over there in the corner? Lets go talk to them. Hi. How is the world treating you?"

"Oh, just fine. Have you seen Barbara and Richard yet? They are starring in the feature show today."

"What sort of an act do they put on?"

"They have a trapeze act. Barbara had quite a fall last night. It seems as though Richard was polite and left her go first."

"Haven't heard anything about Don Lemmon and William Gaskalla, have you? There was a rumor that we might be able to see them at your animal show. Is that true?"

"I believe so. I haven't seen them for several weeks. Why don't you go over and see?"

Sure enough, there they were. Busy as ever.

"Oh, goodness what time is it? We must hurry or we'll miss the main attraction, "Women Daredevil Drivers." It is featuring Della Florea and Carol Gries as the two main drivers."

"Popcorn, peanuts, crackerjacks, five cents a bag."

"Hey, that sounds good. I think I'll get a box of popcorn. Well, as I live and breath, Cleo Ostrander. You're selling popcorn? How did you ever get the job?"

"Oh, Mr. Rogers, our senior advisor, put a good word in for me."

"Well I guess we've seen everything now! Boy, am I glad that's over with. The show certainly was exciting."

"The day is over, but we have no regrets, for it was well spent after seeing our classmates again."

"We all agreed to meet at the fair in 1972."
